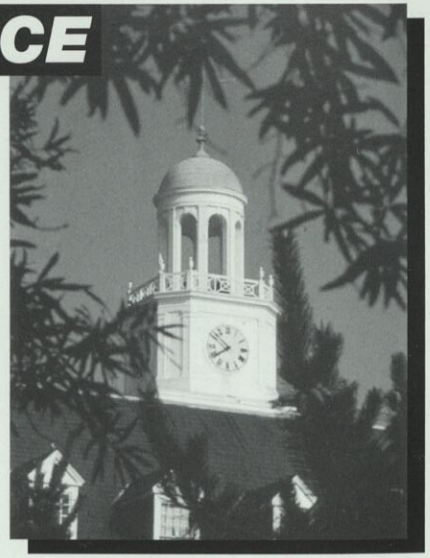
SU AT A GLANCE



The resources of a University ...
6,900 students from 29 states and 28 foreign countries . . . 43 undergraduate and 11 graduate programs . . . 314 full-time faculty, 92 percent of tenure-track faculty have terminal degrees, including National Endowment for the Humanities scholars and Fulbright professors . . . NCAA Division III Athletics, 10 men's, 11 women's intercollegiate teams; 27 intramural sports

... with small-school opportunities.
Approachable faculty (17:1 student/faculty ratio) . . . Honors program with dedicated faculty at the Bellavance Honors Center . . . Ten residence complexes including traditional, co-ed, suite and apartment styles.

The security of state support ...
2004-05 tuition, room, board and fees: $12,576 per year for Maryland residents; $20,154 per year out-of-state.

A library with over 800,000 volumes, periodicals, microforms and databases including word processing and computer labs. Access to collections throughout the country.

... with the benefits of private funding.
Altogether, SU awards some $1.2 million in academic scholarships each year. More than $29 million in private endowments supports some of those scholarships and provides for some of the finest educational programs.

In an ideal—and idyllic—location:
Salisbury, MD, is 30 miles west of the Atlantic Ocean and Ocean City, MD, and 20 miles east of the Chesapeake Bay; 2 hours from Baltimore, Washington, D.C. and Wilmington, DE. The campus is 2 1/2 hours from Norfolk, VA, and Philadelphia, PA, and 4 1/2 hours from New York.

Come see us—in person, or in cyberspace. We'd love to see your smiling face, but if you can't get here, check out our Web site. We're at www.salisbury.edu.

SU's campus is in an attractive, residential neighborhood of stately homes on sculpted lawns, less than one-half mile from the banks of the Wicomico River. The campus includes 45 buildings on over 145 landscaped acres. Students walk from one end of campus to the other in about five minutes.

Margie Knight has elevated the Salisbury University volleyball program to new heights since becoming head coach in 1997. In her eight seasons, the Sea Gulls have recorded five 20-win seasons, captured three conference championships, finished as the conference runnerup in two other seasons and earned three NCAA Tournament berths.

The Gulls have a 169-114 overall record during Knight's tenure, including back-to-back 20-win campaigns in 1997 and 1998 as well as 2003 and 2004. Salisbury set a new team record with a 16-match winning streak during a 26-7 campaign in 2003, then followed with a school-record 31-game winning streak while finishing 25-12 in 2004.

Under her leadership, the Sea Gulls won their first Capital Athletic Conference championship in 1998, added their second CAC title in 2000 and claimed the championship once again in 2004. The Sea Gulls also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of those seasons. Knight has been recognized by her peers as the conference's coach of the year in both 1998 and 2004.

All told, the Sea Gulls have registered a 41-15 regular season CAC record under Knight's leadership, with 19 players recognized on the all-conference teams during her eight seasons. In addition, SU has produced the CAC Player of the Year twice (Jen O'Neill, 1998; Katie Korreck, 2000) and had the Rookie of the Year winner in 2002 (Brittany Mister) and 2003 (Abbey Petrecca). The Sea Gulls have had at least one all-CAC first team selectee in each of Knight's eight seasons.

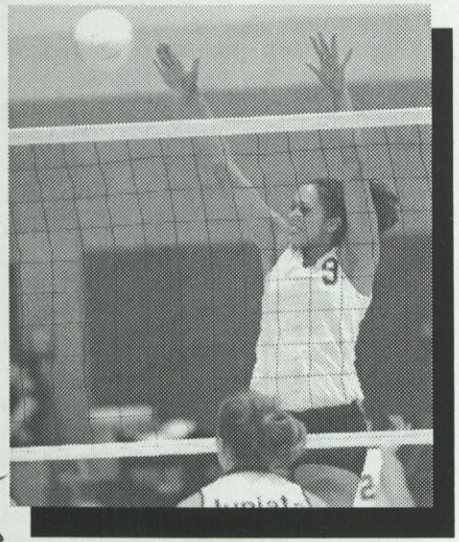
Knight, a 1979 graduate of the University and a member of its Athletics Hall of Fame, returned to her Alma Mater after building an impressive resume of success at the prep level. She won state high school championships in both softball and volleyball during her 13-year head coaching career at North Caroline (MD) High School. The Bulldogs captured the state softball title in 1988 and 1991, and won the state volleyball championship in 1990. Knight compiled a 392-77 combined record in the two sports during her tenure, a winning percentage of over 83 percent.

In addition to her volleyball duties, Knight has piloted the Salisbury softball team to NCAA Tournament berths in each of her eight seasons, including appearances in the College World Series in 1998, 2002, 2003 and 2004. Knight has a 297-82-2 career softball record and led the Sea Gulls to their eighth conference championship in 2004. She has also been named CAC Softball Coach of the Year ~~five~~ six times.

A native of Catonsville, MD, Knight was no stranger to athletic success as a collegiate athlete at Salisbury University. She was a four-year letterwinner in women's basketball and a three-year letterwinner in both softball and volleyball. Additionally, Knight served as a team captain for two years in each of those sports. She was also named MVP of the basketball squad twice and MVP of the softball team as a senior. In recognition of her outstanding collegiate career, she was inducted into the Salisbury Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995.

2004 SEASON IN REVIEW

Gulls Win CAC Title, Return to NCAA Field



Salisbury enjoyed another championship campaign in 2004, winning both the regular season and tournament title in the Capital Athletic Conference, and claiming its third NCAA Tournament berth. The Sea Gulls finished with a final 25-12 record that included a 13-match winning streak and a school-record 31-game winning streak.

CoSIDA

To the victors go the spoils, and three Sea Gulls earned all-CAC honors in 2004. Sophomore setter Abbey Petrecca and junior outside hitter Brittany Mister were both named to the six-player all-conference first team. Junior outside hitter Lindsay Lawson earned all-conference second team honors. Salisbury has had at least one player named to the all-conference first team in each of the last eight years.

1st Team

Good all-aires

Petrecca, who was also the CAC's Rookie of the Year in 2003, set a new Salisbury record by averaging 10.0 assists per game. She finished with 1,312 assists in 2004, registering the second highest season assist total in team history.

Mister finished second on the team in both kills, 399, and digs, 454, in 2004, and also led the Sea Gulls with 58 service aces and a team-best .243 hitting percentage. With one season yet to play, she already ranks among SU's all-time leaders in kills, attempts, digs, aces and blocks.

Lawson finished as SU's overall leader in kills, with 429, while finishing second on the squad with 56 aces and fourth with 243 digs in 2004.

In addition, senior defensive specialist Kim Rementer was one of six players in the nation named to the Academic All-America first team. Rementer led the Sea Gulls with 679 digs in 2004 and concluded her four-year career ranked fifth on SU's all-time list with 1,238 career digs.

The 2004 Gulls added several new entries to the team recordbook. In addition to the new record for consecutive game victories, SU posted the second highest kill total in team history with 76 kills in a five-game match against Lebanon Valley on October 2. SU's 71 assists in the same match was the third highest total in team history.

The Sea Gulls finished 6-1 during the Capital Athletic Conference's regular season and secured the number one seed for the CAC Tournament. SU posted 3-0 wins over Goucher, Gallaudet and Catholic in the CAC Tournament before ending the year with a 3-1 loss to Frostburg State in the opening round of the NCAA Championship Tournament.

A CLOSER LOOK

The Sea Gull volleyball program is among the most consistent in the mid-Atlantic region, with a history of conference championships and regional tournament success. While a member of the Eastern States Athletic Conference from 1987 to 1992, the Gulls claimed the conference's volleyball title in five of the six years. Salisbury, an NCAA Division III member, joined the Capital Athletic Conference in 1993 and has competed as a CAC member for the past 11 seasons. SU finished as the conference's runnerup in both 1996 and 1997 before winning its first CAC title in 1998. Salisbury captured its second conference championship in 2000, and added its third CAC title in 2004.

Salisbury's regular season schedule annually strikes a balance between dual matches, both conference and non-conference, and tournament competition. The Gulls have posted winning records in 16 of the last 20 seasons and averaged over 22 wins per season from 1987 through 2004. SU enjoyed back-to-back 30-win seasons in 1989 and 1990, including a school-record 35 wins in 1990, and captured its first NCAA Tournament berth in 1998. The Sea Gulls have added NCAA Tournament appearances in 2000 and 2004. Salisbury's 16-match winning streak in 2003 also established a new team record, while the Gulls added a school-record 31-game winning streak in 2004.

SU's tournament schedule includes many of the biggest and most competitive Division III events in the region each year. In recent seasons, the Sea Gulls have made tournament appearances at NYU, Gettysburg and Juniata. The annual Maryland State Tournament has also become a highlight on the early-season schedule.

Headed to Tufts for 2006 season

Salisbury's Maggs Center is among the finest volleyball facilities in the region, featuring a new wood floor and seating for nearly 2,000 spectators. During tournaments, the arena has a dual-court alignment, allowing for two matches to be played concurrently.

SU'S ATHLETICS PHILOSOPHY

Salisbury University*, a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) Division III, offers 21 intercollegiate sports for men and women. In addition to NCAA membership, SU competes as a member of the Capital Athletic Conference (CAC) and the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC).

As a member of the NCAA's Division III, Salisbury places the highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience. In doing so, it seeks to strengthen the integration of objectives and programs in athletics with academic and developmental objectives, and to assure the integration of athletes with other students.

SU places special importance on the impact of athletics on the participants, with emphasis on the internal constituency (students, alumni and special friends) rather than on the general public and its entertainment needs.

The SU athletics program is further characterized by the following principles:

- Participants receive the same treatment as other students. They have no unique privileges in admission, academic advising, course selection, grading, living accommodations or financial aid. Similarly, athletes are not denied rights and opportunities that would be available to them as non-athletes.
- Sports for men and women are given equal emphasis and the desired quality of competition is similar in all sports.
- Students are supported in their efforts to reach high levels of performance by providing them with adequate facilities, competent coaching and appropriate competitive opportunities with students from similar institutions.
- SU strives to make the student-athlete's participation in intercollegiate athletics an enriching experience, and holds genuine concern for each participant's welfare. The intercollegiate program's foremost goal at all times is to supplement and enrich the first priority of the University, which is academic accomplishment.
